Guest house

La Cimentelle welcome you for your stay in Burgundy

The origins of the Guest House

The house witnessed the industrial revolution of the 19th century, which developed Burgundy. Today, the Cimentelle Guest House offers rooms in the buildings of the old cement factory of Vassy.
This cement was well known as French Portland cement. First for constructions made in Burgundy. Second, by going all over Europe via the Nivernais or the Burgundy Canal
For example, this cement contributes to the construction of the subway and buildings in Paris.
It also allows water supplies, sewerage and the consolidation of ports.

The Guest house and the surrounding park

A wrought iron gate shields a park planted around the guest house.
In addition, the brightness highlights the orangery and the pediment of the old factory.
An ornamental pond is lighted by sunshine through the trees, and gives a romantic perspective to the whole.
Surrounded by greenery, you will appreciate atmosphere, flowers and the nuance of the materials.
This fine residence built by titans of the cement industry in Burgundy, is now a charming guest house with rooms and family suites : antiques, works of art, old offices, but with a touch of modernity and functionality.
Open space, cocooning, a thoughtful reception: A Stop to like

“Art de vivre”.

The pool of the accommodation

Today, there is no longer any industrial activity on the domain. But the old cement factory houses a swimming pool.
You will appreciate it at the roof of the factory. So much so that its location is hidden from others guests.
While it isolates the park from any noise.
In addition, the swimming pool offers you a southern exposure for a moment of unusual relaxation. Also, it is heated to 28 ° C from April to October.
This is private access, but you can enjoy it in the morning until 1 p.m. and in the afternoon from 4 p.m.
Outside these hours, we remain flexible to your specific requests depending on attendance.
However, we thank you for respecting our rest and our privacy
